Engaging All Families: Moving toward a better understanding of diverse experiences

Presented by: Amy Shema, Ph.D.

October 18, 2017

6:30–8:00

Al Sigl Center, 1000 Elmwood Ave, door #1

During this interactive workshop, participants will engage in activities that assist in identifying families' needs, factors affecting children's identity development, and ways to make classrooms more inclusive. We will be using a combination of case studies, scenarios and discussion questions to provide insights to better serve families. Practical next steps will be shared that can easily be implemented.
